FRENCH QUARTER

The French Quarter of New Orleans is the inspiration for the wrought iron filigree and beautifully engraved castings on this series. The soft glow cast from the antiqued glass and golden shades create the ambiance of old gaslights found in the French Quarter.

CATTURATO

Italian for "captured," the Catturato Series' main feature is the black captured glass that bellows out from its metal cage. It is with great skill that the glass blower fills the framework with just the right amount of pressure to create this striking look. The black fabric shades and antique silver frames compliment the featured black glass components.
